SCHOOL OF LAW

The university searches for those students who are not satisfied with the ordinary, but who thrive on CHALLENGE.

Loyola University is a Jesuit university founded by the Society of Jesus and chartered on April 15, 1912 with ownership vested in the Loyola community of Jesuit fathers.

The School of Law was founded in October 1914. The Honorable John St. Paul, Judge of the Court of Appeal for the Parish of Orleans and later an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, was the first dean serving until 1918. The first year classes were held in downtown New Orleans in the evening only.

Today, the Loyola School of Law operates both a day program for full-time students and an evening program for part-time students. The day program offers curricula in civil law for students who will practice law in Louisiana and in common law for students who will practice elsewhere. The evening program offers only the civil law curriculum.

The Loyola School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the American Bar Association. It is also approved by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York.

All educational programs and activities are open to all qualified persons without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, or sex in the true spirit of Christian love and charity and the Jesuit commitment to social justice.

Loyola is a medium-sized university with a total enrollment of nearly 4,300 students made up of approximately 3,200 undergraduates, 300 graduates, and 680 law school students.

The faculty numbers 302 including 24 Jesuits or other religious who teach. The law faculty numbers 25 full-time members and 17 part-time members.

The geographical diversification of Loyola's general student body is good. Nearly a quarter of the students permanently reside outside Louisiana and represent 43 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and 35 foreign countries. Students also represent a wide range of social and economic backgrounds. The law school's day program is made up of students from 30 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

The campus is located in a residential area of New Orleans known as the university section because Loyola, Tulane University and St. Mary's Dominican College are located within a few blocks of each other.

Fronting on tree-lined St. Charles Avenue where streetcars are the mode of public transportation, Loyola faces Audubon Park directly across the avenue. The 19-acre campus is a collection of beautiful Tudor-Gothic buildings and good modern architecture.

SCHOOL OF LAW

Loyola University is a Catholic institution of higher learning in the Jesuit tradition. Loyola's mission, therefore, in the broadest and deepest sense, is essentially religious and specifically educational and intellectual. The university is a community committed to:

- Excellence in teaching and scholarship;

- The search for the truth and a recognition of the critical intelligence needed to attain and communicate it;

- The promotion of faith and justice in all spheres of activity — the city, the state, the region and the world;

- Concern for the spiritual and moral development of each individual in the university.

While the Christian tradition is not wedded to any one philosophical, scientific, aesthetic or political ideology, it is not compatible with every point of view. The Christian view of reality is concerned ultimately with choice and action, and is premised on the concept of moral responsibility. Therefore, the university must provide an environment in which all aspects of campus life, including administration and the curriculum, reflect a concern with ethical values. While the Jesuit tradition is world-affirming, it is also deeply concerned with the promotion of service to others rather than self-aggrandizement. This commitment to social justice can be shared by all who are of good will, in keeping with a respect for ecumenical diversity and religious and academic freedom.

The School of Law is committed to excellence in legal education in the tradition of its spiritual heritage, with our goal being wisdom, not mere technical competence. We welcome all persons who sincerely strive for the truth and are prepared to challenge all assumptions in light of this commitment.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Starting with the spring semester of 1979, Loyola implemented a new comprehensive computer based student record system. As a result, many procedures and policies changed. Students who attend prior to and after the spring semester of 1979 will have two transcripts that will have different appearances and form but will remain identical in content. At the same time, a new course numbering system was implemented. For this reason, two course numbers appear in the University's Bulletins for 1981-82.

The requirement for the degree of juris doctor is 90 credit hours of work earned in the School of Law extended over at least three academic years.

Students who may wish to be admitted to practice in a state other than Louisiana should write to the Clerk of the Supreme Court or the secretary of the Bar in such state on or before registration in the first year class with regard to special rules for qualification for admission to practice in that state.

FULL-TIME CURRICULUM

The full-time day program offers two curricula leading to the juris doctor degree; one in the tradition of the civil law for Louisiana students; one in the general common law for those students who will practice elsewhere.

The curriculum for full-time students covers a period of six semesters of resident study. Resident study requires that the student carry not less than 10 credit hours a semester and pass a minimum of nine. The normal time frame for completion of the Juris Doctor degree is three academic years. Students are forewarned that this is a minimum time frame and that the program may not be completed by acceleration in two and one half years.

The maximum time allowed for completion of the degree by all students is five academic years of resident law study.

The following curriculum table gives the required courses and indicates elective hours for full-time students in both civil and common law programs. Those courses for students in the common law program are set in italics following the civil law course for which it substitutes.

PART-TIME CURRICULUM

The part-time evening program offers only the civil law curriculum. The normal time frame for part-time students is four academic years plus two summer sessions. Resident study requires that the student carry not less than eight credit hours a semester and pass a minimum of six. All students in the evening division are part-time students. The maximum time allowed for completion of the degree by all students is five academic years of resident law study.

SUMMER

Nine hours of required or elective courses should be taken during the summer sessions after the first year and prior to graduation to assure completion of the degree requirements in four calendar years.

JURIS DOCTOR/MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The JD/MBA program is designed for those students seeking advanced education in business administration in addition to an education in the law.

Applicants for the JD/MBA program must apply separately to the School of Law and to the College of Business graduate program and be accepted individually to both. The schools together will determine whether the applicant is eligible for the combined program. The JD/MBA applicant must present satisfactory evidence of having earned an undergraduate degree as well as satisfactory completion of 36 credit hours of designated undergraduate business course requirements.

Normal degree requirements of 90 semester hours (Juris Doctor) and 30 semester hours (Master of Business Administration) are complemented and reduced to 81 semester hours (Juris Doctor) and 21 semester hours (Master of Business Administration). Each program is reduced by nine semester hours as each program accepts, as part of its requirement, nine semester hours from the other program.

Upon completion of the program, the student will be awarded two separate degrees. The requirements for both must be completed, however, before either degree can be awarded.

Students participating in the joint program must maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.30 (4.00 scale) in the School of Law and 3.00 (4.00 scale) in the College of Business Administration.

Students failing to meet all of the requirements of the program are awarded the Juris Doctor or Master of Business Administration degree only if they fulfill the requirements for the individual degree as outlined in the Law School or Graduate bulletins, respectively.

ELECTIVES

In order to provide students with a greater degree of predictability in regard to the scheduling of courses, the electives offered in the Law School are divided into three categories.

CATEGORY I consists of those courses which the Law School will make every effort to offer every year. Insufficient faculty manpower or extraordinary circumstances may make it impossible to adhere to this plan, but whenever there is a conflict, these courses will be given first consideration.

CATEGORY II consists of those courses the Law School will attempt to offer every other year. The same caveat applies as in Category I.

CATEGORY III consists of those courses which will be offered whenever student interest and faculty availability permit. Student interest will be consulted in determining which of these courses will be offered in any given semester. Courses in category III will be offered only when arrangements have been made to offer those in the first two groups. They may, however, be offered frequently, even yearly, if student interest and faculty availability permit.

¹Students enrolled in the JD/MBA program must satisfactorily complete all required courses of the juris doctor degree and, in addition, must satisfactorily complete a minimum of 12 credit hours of study from these courses.

²Students entering the School of Law in 1982 and thereafter are required to take at least one of these courses prior to graduation.

ADMISSION

Applicants beginning the study of law as degree seeking students will be admitted only in the fall semester.

Both the Louisiana civil law curriculum and the general common law curriculum are available in the full-time day program. Only the Louisiana civil law curriculum is available in the part-time evening program. Although there is no application deadline, applications received after May 1 and files completed after June 15 will be processed only on a space available basis.

Applicants selected must furnish a photograph, passport size, prior to registration. All transcripts and documents submitted become the property of the university.

Applicants who have attended another law school, and who have been excluded for defective scholarship, or who are on scholastic probation, are not eligible for admission to this School of Law.

Students in good standing at an approved law school (one that is a member of the Association of American Law Schools or approved by the American Bar Association) may enroll as transient students with the permission of the dean. Members of the Bar may be admitted as non-degree seeking students and register for courses on an audit basis.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants to the School of Law must present satisfactory evidence that they have earned an undergraduate degree. In certain cases, applicants possessing an exceptional record may be considered for admission by presenting satisfactory evidence that they have completed a minimum of three-fourths of the requirements for an undergraduate degree. Applicants are in competition with one another under a rolling admissions system on the basis of undergraduate grade point average and Law School Admission Test (LSAT) score. The LSAT score attained must complement the undergraduate record sufficiently to indicate the applicant's ability to complete successfully work undertaken in the School of Law.

For a profile of entrance credentials of the most recent entering class (both undergraduate grade point average and LSAT score), applicants are advised to read the Pre-Law Handbook published by the Law School Admission Council in conjunction with the Association of American Law Schools.

All applicants must register with the Law School Admission Services for both the LSAT and the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). Applications for both are available at the School of Law or by writing directly to Law School Admission Services, Box 2000-R, Newtown, PA 18940.

Applications for the Law School Admission Test must be post marked at least 30 days prior to the administration date. Information concerning late registration, as well as a list of the test centers and the dates on which each will be used, is contained in the LSAT informational brochure. Applicants should arrange to take the test as early as possible — preferably no later than February.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants for admission to the freshman class of the School of Law must:

1. Execute an application form obtained from the School of Law and file it, together with the application fee payable to Loyola University, with the assistant dean for admissions, School of Law. The law school application matching form must accompany this application. (Note: Matching forms and complete information concerning their use in the admissions process are found within the Law School Admission Services Brochure.)

2. Register with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS). A transcript from each college or university attended (a cumulative transcript from the last school attended will not suffice) should then be sent directly to: LSAT/LSDAS, P.O. Box 2000-R, Newtown, Penna. 18940.

The LSDAS will analyze all transcripts submitted and will send a complete report as well as a copy of each transcript submitted to the Loyola University School of Law.

Upon acceptance, applicants will then be asked to submit a final transcript, showing the award of a bachelor's degree or completion of 96 hours in courses having substantial intellectual content, directly to this law school. If undergraduate or graduate work has been taken in more than one college or university, the accepted applicants must arrange to have original transcripts sent from all institutions attended regardless of credit earned.

All students entering Loyola University for the first time must have the student affairs office at the last attended university complete a Request for Personal Information form. Its submission is a prerequisite to registration. All new students must also complete a Medical History Questionnaire, the results of which must be on file in the Student Health Services office prior to registration.

TRANSFER APPLICANTS

A limited number of applicants who have successfully pursued a portion of their law studies in an approved law school may be accepted as students with advanced standing.

Transfer applicants must present evidence of eligibility required of entering students the year in which they began the study of law. They must also present evidence of above average academic study in their prior law record. The right is reserved to refuse such credit in whole or in part. Transfer quality points are not used in calculating Law School GPA's or rank in class. At a minimum, one year's residence (30 credit hours) in the Loyola University School of Law is required of transfer students in order that they may be eligible for a degree.

READMISSION

An excluded student may petition the faculty for readmission to the School of Law. Such a petition for readmission may be granted only if, in the judgment of the faculty:

- 1) there was an unusual hardship,
- 2) the hardship is not likely to reoccur if the student is readmitted and
- 3) the academic record earned by the student in one or more semesters while enrolled in the School of Law was not indicative of his ability to satisfactorily complete the requirements leading to a juris doctor degree.

A student whose petition for readmission to the School of Law has been denied by the faculty may not petition again for readmission until two years have passed since his or her last enrollment or petition for readmission. Any petition for readmission made at that time will be for admission as a beginning student with no academic credit for prior work attempted. Such a petition may be granted only if, in the judgment of the faculty, the excluded student has demonstrated that he or she possesses the ability to successfully complete a course of law study and has pursued activities since exclusion from the School of Law that indicate his or her ability and determination to successfully complete the requirements for a juris doctor degree.

This policy applies to students entering the School of Law in and after August 1980. Students who entered prior to that time are governed by the provisions in the 1979-80 Bulletin.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

HONOR CODE

Students in the Loyola School of Law are governed by an honor code. An elected student committee acts as a fact finding committee for the honor code. The committee reviews complaints and accords a hearing. If the complaint is found to be substantial and if the complaint is sustained, the student may appeal to the dean.

KNOWLEDGE OF REGULATIONS

Students are responsible for compliance with the regulations of the university and should familiarize themselves with the provisions of this bulletin, the Student Handbook distributed by the Office of Student Affairs, posted official notices, and official instructions given to students.

At registration, it is understood that both the students and the student's parents or guardians agree that the student will be governed by the university regulations and will abide by decisions made by proper authorities of the university regarding the individual student.

COURSE LOAD

Full-time students will not be permitted to schedule more than 16 hours of law work in any semester without special permission from the dean of the School of Law. However, a student who is registered for a full schedule in either program may audit any course he has not scheduled. He should receive permission of the faculty member offering the course. Full-time upperclassmen will not be permitted to schedule less than 10 hours of law work in any one semester. Freshmen must schedule 16 hours.

Part-time students will not be permitted to schedule more than 11 hours of law work in any one semester. Part-time upperclassmen will not be permitted to schedule less than eight hours each semester unless it is impossible for them to choose that many from the courses that are offered. Freshmen must schedule 11 hours.

Students must complete their requirements in five calendar years.

Students registered in the School of Law will not be permitted to register for courses in any other school without special permission from the dean of the School of Law. Permission will be granted only to upperclassmen in special instances. Except for those students enrolled in the JD/MBA program, no one will be permitted to take more than three hours of work in another school while enrolled in the School of Law.

WRITING REQUIREMENT*

The faculty has established a requirement that prior to graduation a student must demonstrate writing ability by the successful completion (as evidenced by a grade of C or higher) of one of the following:

*Effective for class that entered in September 1980.

- (1) Law Review Seminar (Law 892)
- (2) Law Review Honors Tutorial (Law 891)
- (3) Legal Research (Law 898 a 2 hour credit assignment)
- (4) A Seminar in:
 - Juvenile Law (Law 865)
 - Business Planning (Law 867)
 - First Amendment Rights (Law 871)
 - Current Problems in Constitutional Law (Law 877)
 - Sex Discrimination Law (Law 891)
 - Advanced Corporate Tax (Law 886)
 - Federal Taxation (Law 887)
- (5) Any new seminar or course in which a paper of suitable length and quality is required.

PRE-REGISTRATION

Loyola students enrolled in one term may pre-register for the next term. New admits, transient students, and Loyola students who complete a degree program in a given term are not eligible for pre-registration. Pre-registration is usually held in April and November. Approximately 70 per cent of the students who pre-register receive every course requested. Requests for courses are processed on a first-come, first-served basis within classifications; therefore, all seniors receive the highest priority, then juniors, etc. A student's earned hours at the time of pre-registration are used to determine classifications.

Students who pre-register are required to confirm their registration. As a result, these students are billed for tuition and fees. Students who fail to confirm their registration are not billed and their registrations will be cancelled. Students with unpaid financial obligations to the university may not pre-register until such obligations have been satisfied.

REGISTRATION

All those admitted to the university who have not preregistered should attend registration at the scheduled hours during their authorized admit term. Degree and non-degree seeking students in the preceding term (excluding summer) are eligible to register if they did not pre-register. Students who pre-registered are eligible to drop or add courses at registration. Students with unpaid financial obligations to the university may not register until such obligations have been satisfied. Students who pre-register are not required to attend registration.

LATE REGISTRATION

Late registration is normally held the first two working days after registration. A late registration fee is assessed to cover the additional administrative costs and, at the discretion of the Student Finance Office, a student may be required to pay tuition in full. Students with unpaid financial obligations with the university may not register until such obligations have been satisfied.

DROP/ADD PERIOD

Normally, for five working days following the last day of registration, students are permitted to drop and add courses. A $5 per transaction drop/add fee is charged to cover the administrative costs so that the financial burden of this option will not have to be passed on to the student population at large. Because of external and internal reportings on enrollments, deadlines for drop/add activity must be strictly enforced.

WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE

With the permission of the dean, students may withdraw from an elective course up to the day noted in the academic calendar. Subsequent to the date for the last day to drop a course a student will not be permitted to withdraw from a scheduled course.

CLASSIFICATION

Degree seeking students are admitted to a degree program and classified as follows:

	Total Earned Hours		Total Earned Hours
Freshmen		Juniors
Day Program	0-31	Day Program	32-59
Evening Program	0-20	Evening Program	40-68
	Total Earned Hours		Total Earned Hours
Sophomores		Seniors
Evening Program	21-39	Day Program	60-90
		Evening Program	69-90

ATTENDANCE

Regular and punctual attendance is required. No student will be given credit for work done in any course in which he has failed to attend at least 75 per cent of the scheduled classes. Excessive absences will be recorded with a grade W. The student has the primary responsibility to keep a record of absences.

Upon a showing of compelling hardship and in exceptional circumstances, the Student Petitions Committee may relieve a student of this requirement. Petitions for this purpose must be submitted in a timely manner—at least a week prior to the examination period. The committee may permit the student to take the examination or give no relief.

EXAMINATIONS AND GRADES

Examinations are given at the end of each semester. The alphabetical system of grading is used. The quality of work indicated by these grades is as follows:

Grade	Quality of Work
A.....	Excellent
B+ and B.....	Good
C+ and C.....	Satisfactory
D+ and D.....	Unsatisfactory
F.....	Failure

Other grades that may be given are:

AF.....	Absent from Examination
AU.....	Audit
AI.....	Audit Incomplete
I.....	Incomplete
IP.....	In Progress
W.....	Administrative Withdrawal
UW.....	Unauthorized Withdrawal

The "I" grade is to be assigned only when the instructor has been presented with serious and compelling reasons why the student should be allowed to complete the course at a later date. The "I" grade is not an automatic extension. If the "I" grade is not made up by the end of the term subsequent to the term in which it was incurred, it can only be made up by special permission of the dean. An "I" grade which is not made up becomes permanent.

In the case of a student who fails to appear for an examination without officially withdrawing the following action will be taken:

1. Upon timely petition addressed to the faculty, the student may when he presents evidence of sufficient cause, such as, personal illness, death in his immediate family or detention out of town unavoidably, be permitted to take a deferred examination. The record of the student will list the course(s) as "Incomplete." Such examination shall normally be completed the next time the students are examined in the course.
2. In all other cases the record will be marked AF. This grade will be considered as an F in determining student averages and will indicate nonattempt of the examination for required course purposes.
3. Once a student receives a copy of the examination he or she is committed to a grade. If a student is present to take an examination, but for serious reason believes that she or he is unable to take it, the student should immediately advise the instructor of the circumstances.

STUDENT PETITIONS COMMITTEE

This committee will receive petitions from students for a variation from the rules and policies of the School of Law. Requests must be made in a timely manner.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

A student's grade point average is based on the credit hours, grading method, and grade awarded. The following definitions apply:

CREDIT HOURS are the units associated with each course. Each degree program requires that a student acquire a specific number of credit hours. Typically, a three credit hour course meets for a total of 150 minutes a week.

QUALITY HOURS are the units upon which a student's grade point average is calculated. Quality hours differ from credit hours because the former excludes pass/fail, non-graded courses, etc.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE (current and cumulative) is the quality hours divided into the quality points of the grade awarded. A student's grade point average is based solely on Loyola University Law School coursework. Grades associated with transfer coursework are not applied to Loyola's grade point average.

CUMULATIVE EARNED HOURS is the credit hours earned at Loyola plus the hours awarded by Loyola for coursework taken at other universities.

GRADE REPORTS

Grade Reports are issued three times a year:

Fall Term — approximately February 15

Spring Term — approximately July 15

Summer Term — approximately September 15

Grade Reports list all courses graded during the term, the current term grade point average, Law School cumulative grade point average and the cumulative hours earned toward the law degree. Students have 30 days to notify the university registrar of any discrepancies.

JURIS DOCTOR DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for graduation a student must earn 90 credit hours, have a minimum grade point average of 2.0 on all work attempted, complete the required courses, and complete the period of resident study extending over a minimum of three academic years.

Quality points are earned according to the following schedule:

Grade	Quality Points
A	4.0
B+	3.5
B	3.0
C+	2.5
C	2.0
D+	1.5

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

It is expected that a student should do satisfactory work and should therefore have a minimum average of 2.0 at all times.

Students who have failed a required course must repeat that course. Both grades will be posted on their transcripts.

SCHOLASTIC PROBATION

A student will be on scholastic probation at any time the overall average is less than 2.0. Students on scholastic probation may not hold office or otherwise participate in formal extracurricular activities of the School of Law.

EXCLUSIONS

A student will be automatically excluded from the School of Law if:

1. at any time after attempting 18 semester hours of law school work the student's overall average is less than 2.0;
2. at any time thereafter the overall average of a full-time or part-time student is less than 2.0 providing the student has been on academic probation for the semester immediately preceding exclusion and;
3. at any time while on scholastic probation the student earns a semester grade point average of 2.0 or less for the semester.

WITHDRAWAL FROM UNIVERSITY

A student may withdraw from the School of Law at any time prior to the examination period. Notice of withdrawal must be given in writing and it is not effective until all forms have been completed and returned to the registrar. A student who withdraws from the university before taking the final examinations forfeits all credit for work done in that semester. The effect of withdrawal from the university on the student's right to readmission depends upon his scholastic record at the time of withdrawal. A student who contemplates withdrawal should determine its effect through consultation with the dean of the law school prior to taking such action.

To withdraw officially from the university a student must:

1. Obtain withdrawal forms from the Office of the Registrar.
2. Obtain signatures of designated officials on withdrawal forms. (These forms will not be signed until the student has cleared all obligations to the university.)
3. Resident students must officially withdraw by obtaining clearance through the housing office.

Withdrawal is not complete or official until all signatures have been obtained and forms are returned to the Office of the Registrar.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Students enrolled in one term may apply to their dean for a leave of absence either for the next term or academic year. Students returning from a leave of absence are subject to the policies of the most current bulletin.

CHANGE OF COLLEGE CONCENTRATION

Students may request a change in concentration (civil or common law) by completing the appropriate form and submitting the form to the dean's office. The petition may be made at any time and takes effect in the next term.

TRANSCRIPTS

Loyola is authorized to distribute only Loyola transcripts, not transcripts from other universities. Students may have three records at Loyola which comprise the official transcript: undergraduate, graduate, and law. Upon a student's request, all official transcripts are sent by the registrar's office to other organizations. Unofficial transcripts marked, "Official Transcript Issued to the Student," are given by the registrar's office to students. In accordance with recommendations of the American Association of College Registrars and Admissions Officers, official transcripts issued to students should not be treated as an official academic credential. Transcripts, as opposed to degrees, carry notations identifying concentrations. Probation and academic dismissal are indicated on the transcript for students placed in this status.

RELEASE AND ACCESS TO STUDENT RECORDS

Public Law 93-380 (also known as the Buckley Amendment and as the Privacy Rights of Parents and Students — Section 438 of the General Education Provisions Act) permits only the release of "directory information" about students without the student's written consent. Directory information includes:

Student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, college, major, classification, participation in recognized student activities, marital status, sex, date of attendance, degrees received and dates of receipt, and the institution attended immediately prior to admission.

The law further provides that any student may, upon written request, restrict the printing of such directory information in the student address directory.

The law requires the written consent of the student for the release to anyone (including parents) of other than directory information with the following exceptions — (a) other school officials within the educational institution who have legitimate educational interests; (b) officials of schools to which the student seeks to transfer; (c) the comptroller general of the United States, the HEW secretary, the administrative head of an education agency, or state educational authorities; (d) in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of financial aid; (e) state and local officials or authorities to which such information is specifically required to be reported under state statute adopted prior to November 19, 1974; (f) organizations or educational agencies conducting legitimate research, provided no personal identifiable information about the student is made public; (g) accrediting organizations; (h) parents of a dependent student upon proof of dependency; (i) and, in connection with an emergency when such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons.

Personal information shall only be transferred to a third party, however, on the condition that such party will not permit any other party to have access to the information without the written consent of the student and that the information be utilized only for the specific purpose for which it was released.

Under the law, any student has the right to inspect and challenge his or her own educational file, with the exception of letters of recommendation or other material when the author was guaranteed confidentiality prior to January 1, 1975. Positive identification of the student shall be required for such examination and a university official shall remain in the immediate vicinity during the examination process.

Each educational institution is required by the law to maintain a record kept with the education records of each student, which will indicate all individuals, agencies or organizations (other than those specified as having access without the student's written consent) having obtained access to the student's record.

SUMMER SCHOOL

A limited number of courses are offered each summer in an eight-week session. Schedules are available in the spring.

VETERANS AND SOCIAL SECURITY CERTIFICATIONS

Immediately following registration held in the beginning of each term, students who are eligible for benefits through the Veterans and Social Security Administrations can be certified by the coordinator of certifications in the Registrar's Office. In accordance with Title 38, United States Code, Veterans Benefits Loyola University certifies only those students who are admitted to a degree program and who are making satisfactory progress as determined by the probationary and exclusion policies of the university's colleges.

Reimbursement is certified for standard courses only, excluding independent study, internships, continuing education and special program courses. All inquiries concerning the certification should be directed to the coordinator of Veterans and Social Security Administration Benefits in the university Registrar's Office.

RESOURCES

LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library is a repository of substantial legal research materials. It houses more than 110,000 volumes, including over 17,000 equivalent volumes of microforms and in excess of 2,450 current serial subscriptions. The collection contains the statutes and reports of the federal and state jurisdictions of the United States, as well as comprehensive collections of encyclopedias, digests, citators, indices, loose-leaf services, law journals, and treatises. It also contains substantial collections of comparative, international, regional, and foreign law. Civil law and common law jurisdictions are equally represented by legal authorities on Roman, French, and Quebec law as well as materials from the countries of the British Commonwealth.

The library is a U.S. government documents depository and a depository of Louisiana state documents. The entire collection is organized on jurisdictional, research, and subject-matter relationships. There is a professional staff of seven qualified librarians, two of whom have law degrees, to provide reference service during the day, the evening and the weekend.

In addition to conventional resources, the library has extensive computer facilities in place to access information outside the confines of the library. The OCLC service permits the library to access a national database of over 5 million publications, most of which may be borrowed via the computer terminal in the library. The LEXIS service allows the library to access the largest legal database in the nation, which includes court decisions, statutes, and regulations on both federal and local levels.

The six-level library section provides open-stack areas on all floors, over 345 spacious individual study carrels and tables, two conference rooms, one typing room, two student reading lounges and restroom facilities.

LAW REVIEW

The faculty and students of the School of Law publish the Loyola Law Review. A student board of editors, chosen from seniors who have published in the Law Review, invite outstanding students at the end of their first year of law school to participate in a program of legal research and writing leading to publication of the Law Review. Articles are contributed by law teachers and attorneys, but most of the published material is written and edited by Loyola law students.

EDWARD RIGHTOR LECTURE

The Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America has established and funded a foundation to provide funds for periodic lectures in the School of Law in memory of Edward Rightor. Mr. Rightor was a past exalted ruler of the Grand Lodge and for many years was a member of the part-time teaching staff of the School of Law.

LAW CLINIC

The Loyola Law Clinic, established under special rules adopted by the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana, provides senior law students an opportunity to gain practical experience in both criminal and civil law. Thirty students participate, receiving a total of six hours credit for their two semesters of work in the program. Twenty students are assigned to defense cases in the clinic, handling both criminal and civil cases under the supervision of two attorneys. Ten students are assigned to the District Attorney's Office where they prosecute misdemeanor cases under the supervision of the district attorney. Students are selected for the program on the basis of a written application, which includes information on grades and prior experience, at the end of their junior year of law study. The clinic combines seminars with practical trial experience, allowing senior law students to handle all phases of a case as a practicing attorney would.

FEDERAL EXTERN PROGRAM

The judges of the US District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana have established an extern program in which the Loyola University School of Law participates.

Second year law students in the upper third of their class may apply to participate in the program. Enrollment is limited. The selection of externs is made by the faculty and the US District judges.

The extern must be willing to devote at least 12 hours a week to work assignments over two semesters except for the examination period and preceding week. Two credits per semester on a pass/fail basis may be earned in the program.

The extern will engage in the preparation of memoranda in connection with motions filed pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure. The extern will learn basic administration and recordkeeping procedures of the US District Court. A participant will have an opportunity to sit in on arguments on motions on which he or she has worked. The rules of confidentiality apply to this appointment.

MOOT COURT

Moot court, a comprehensive program in which students are given an opportunity to participate in intercollegiate moot court competition, offers training in the arts of oral advocacy and the skills of brief writing.

A moot court board, composed of three senior law students with prior national or international moot court experience or participation in the Appellate Argument Seminar, is responsible for the organization, administration, and selection of members of the national and international moot court teams who compete with other law schools in the region and nationwide.

Selection for the positions on the teams is made on a competitive basis, with each participant graded individually on each appearance before a bench of judges. Eliminations are made and selection based on those grades.

In the past, Loyola University School of Law teams have won regional competitions as well as the 1974 National Moot Court competition.

PHYSICAL FACILITIES

The Branch Knox Miller Memorial Hall houses the School of Law. It was built in 1973 with gifts from law alumni and friends, assistance from a federal subsidy and revenue from university investments. Miller Hall was built especially for students engaged in law studies. The three-story school section of the building houses four lecture rooms, two seminar rooms, a moot court room, a student lounge, a conference room, faculty and administrative offices, and offices for many student activities.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Student Bar Association was organized in the spring of 1952 and is comprised of all students enrolled in the day and evening programs of the law school. It is governed under a constitution adopted by the students. Its purpose is to provide a means of closer unity among all students and to foster mutual cooperation and understanding between the law student body, the law faculty, and the legal profession. The Student Bar Association of Loyola is a member of the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association.

Membership dues in the Student Bar Association is $58.00 for all students payable to the Student Bar Association at registration of the freshman year but covering all three (four) years of law school.

In the fall of 1960, The Code, a law school newspaper was established under the auspices of the Student Bar Association. Participation is open to all students. It is dedicated to the reporting of law school news and providing a medium for the expression of student views.

Delta Theta Phi national legal fraternity has established a chapter at the School of Law, to which all law students are eligible for membership. The fraternity is devoted to the stimulation of interest in scholarship, organized legal research and writing, participation in appellate court competition and fellowship on the part of its members. It presents a scholarship key to each member in the top 15 per cent of the senior class and the top seven per cent of the junior class.

Loyola Association of Women Law Students, organized in 1972, promotes the full involvement of women students in the law school and in the community. The association sponsors speakers whose primary emphasis is on women in various phases of the law, plans an annual picnic for incoming freshmen as part of the orientation program, works to establish curriculum courses of interest to women, and provides tape recordings of national workshops on women and the law.

Phi Alpha Delta international legal fraternity has established a chapter at the School of Law to which any law student is eligible for membership. The fraternity's purpose is to serve the law student by stressing a proper blend of professional and social activity to prepare him for the practice of law, to serve the law school by supplementing the formal courses with an orientation program for first year students, lectures, interschool moot court competition, and other preprofessional endeavors in order to fulfill its motto "Service to the Student, the Law School, and the Profession."

Phi Delta Phi international legal fraternity is the oldest legal fraternity in the United States. Phi Delta Phi has established its 99th Inn here at Loyola Law School, and members are selected from those of the student body who have completed at least one semester of study and have attained a minimum 2.0 grade point average. The inn's main purpose is to promote academic achievement and service to the students, while at the same time fostering the friendship that has become a hallmark of the Phi Delta Phi tradition.

St. Thomas More Law Club was established in 1935, under the patronage of the English martyr and saint. The club is open to all members of the law school community, and is dedicated to the stimulation of an interest in the moral and ethical responsibilities of members of the legal profession. This purpose is achieved through the exploration of subject matter not always treated in the ordinary curriculum; by way of lectures, debates, seminars, workshops, community action and legal scholarship. The club also sponsors the Edward Rightor Lecture Series.

A. P. Tureaud Chapter of the Black American Law Student Association, established in 1969, is geared to recruiting and maintaining the enrollment of qualified minority students in the law school. Members of the organization recruit minority students from colleges and universities throughout the region. Tutorial services are also offered to help maintain the enrollment level of minority students. The society, open to all interested law students, maintains contact with related national organizations and other law schools throughout the country that support similar programs.

Communication Law Society, founded in 1979, is designed to stimulate an awareness of the legal issues accompanying the flow of information in society. Through speakers, seminars, debates, community action and legal scholarship, members provide the law students and faculty with information regarding this important field of law.

AWARDS AND PRIZES

American Jurisprudence Prizes, consisting of bound titles of American Jurisprudence Encyclopedia, are awarded jointly by the Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Company and the Bancroft Whitney Company. An award is given to the student in each of a number of designated courses whose performance in the opinion of his instructor is most outstanding.

The Association for Women Law Students Award given by AWLS to the outstanding member for the recent academic year.

Hon. Robert A. Ainsworth, Jr. Award. This award is made possible by the New Orleans Chapter of the Federal Bar Association in honor of the memory of United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Ainsworth, one of the Law School's distinguished graduates and a long time ardent supporter of the Federal Bar Association. The award consists of a $200 cash stipend awarded annually to the student who, in the opinion of the Constitutional Law Faculty, has excelled in the course in Constitutional Law.

Dean's Award is given annually to the student who has maintained the highest average during his first year in the School of Law.

Certificates of Merit are presented to students in the School of Law who receive the highest grade in a particular course for which the American Jurisprudence Books are not available.

The Client Counseling Award given each year by the Law Student Division of the American Bar Association to the team members who participate in this competition in the Spring.

The Dennis Company Award given to the Appellate Advocacy team competing in the Regional Competition each Spring. Donated by Mr. Fred O. Dennis.

Faculty Award as well as the Allen Smith Company Award is given annually to the senior in the School of Law who has maintained the highest average over his entire course of study.

The J. Braxton Craven Award presented by the Student Bar Association to the participants in the J. Braxton Craven Memorial Moot Court competition.

Jack La Nasa Award is given annually to the student in the School of Law who earns the highest grade in contracts. The award is a copy of the English Translation of Planiol's Treatise on the Civil Law.

Law Clinic Award is given by Civil Sheriff Charles Foti to the participant in the Loyola Law Clinic whose participation was the most outstanding.

Law Week Award consists of a year's complimentary subscription to the publication Law Week. The award is given to the graduating student who has made the most satisfactory scholastic progress in his final year.

Loyola Law Alumni gives an award annually to the member of the student editorial board of the Law Review who has made the most significant contribution to the Loyola Law Review in the field of research and writing during the academic year.

Loyola Law Alumni also gives an award annually to the members of the Loyola National Appellate Moot Court team selected to compete in the competition sponsored by the Young Lawyers Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York for law schools in the United States.

Louisiana Trial Lawyers Association Award is given to the student whose performance in Moot Court was most outstanding. It is given by the Louisiana Trial Lawyers Association.

Edwin I. Mahoney Award is given annually by the Criminal Courts Bar Association to the student in the School of Law receiving the highest grade in criminal law. The student meriting this award will have his name inscribed upon the scroll.

Milton Sheen Award is given annually by Dr. Irving Sheen, in memory of his only brother, to the graduating senior whose law school tenure has best exhibited those qualities of leadership, fellowship, and service to the law and the community which were so well exemplified in the life of Milton Sheen.

Antonio E. Papale Award is given by the Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity to the student in the School of Law who earns the highest grade in the common law course Contracts.

Joseph M. Rault Award for excellence in admiralty and maritime law established by Loyola University in September, 1963, is awarded annually to the law student whose performance in admiralty and maritime law was most outstanding. The award is a plaque, suitably inscribed, as a recognition of this honor, and as a symbol of interest in this professional field so vital to this community.

Henry L. Sarpy Award is made each year by Leon Sarpy to the student in the day program of the School of Law whose performance in the course Louisiana Probate Seminar was most outstanding.

West Publishing Company Awards one selected title of Corpus Juris Secundum to the student in each class who, in the opinion of the faculty, has made the most significant contribution to legal scholarship. Legal scholarship is assessed on the basis of activities such as legal writing in addition to classroom performance. Also, this company awards a selected volume from its Hornbook series to the student in each class who has achieved the highest scholastic average.

American Bar Association Prizes. The Section of Urban, State and Local Government Law has established two prizes. One is to go to the student who excels in the course in Land Development Law and the other for the student who excels in State and Local Government Law. The prize in each case is a book published by the Section.

TUITION, FEES, AND FINANCIAL AID

All regular students are assessed tuition and fees on a semester basis.

These fees and the tuition pay for only about 60 percent of the actual cost of operating Loyola for one year. The other 40 percent is made up with funds raised by the Annual Support Program from alumni, friends, faculty and staff, WWL-AM-FM-TV employees, foundations, corporations, revenues from WWL, and a small university endowment.

Applicants for admission to Loyola and students who need assistance in paying for their education are encouraged to apply for financial aid. Applications for financial aid are included in the application packet. Additional forms may be obtained from the Financial Aid Office.

TUITION AND FEES

Because of the uncertainty of the economy and budgetary projections, Loyola University reserves the right to change tuition, fees, or other charges printed herein. The rates for 1982-83 are listed below:

The Christmas holiday period and between semesters are not included in the room charges. The university may utilize rooms in the residence halls to house conference groups during holiday periods.

Information on accommodations and on reservations is provided in the chapter title Student Life.

Meal Plans (Board)

Loyola's meal program is voluntary. Those who want the program may contract on a semester basis for one of four meal plans. For information on the meal program write Food Service, Loyola University, 6363 St. Charles Ave., New Orleans, La 70118 or phone 865-2127. The rates for 1981-82 were:

¹If more than one transcript is requested at a given time, the cost for each additional transcript will be only $1.00.

²This deposit is credited to the student's room charge. It is not refundable if the student cancels the housing request.

10 meals per week	$489 per sem.
14 meals per week	$543 per sem.
19 meals per week	$569 per sem.
Cash Coupon Plan.....	$200 per book

Because the board program is voluntary, students are not billed for it as is the case for tuition, fees, and room charges. Checks or money orders for one of the four meal plans must be made payable to Loyola University but given directly to the Food Service, who manages the program for Loyola. Payments may be mailed to the Food Service prior to registration or may be given to the food service company during the registration period. Cash Coupon Plan cards may be purchased at registration or during the semester.

The meal plan rates were not available in time for publication. They are expected to increase over the published 1981-82 rates.

BILLING AND PAYMENT POLICY

Students are mailed a bill for the tuition, fees, and room charges. First year students and all others who have not preregistered are mailed a bill soon after registering. Returning students who have preregistered receive a bill prior to registration.

Full payment must be received by the Student Finance Office no later than 30 days after classes begins. Students paying after this date will incur a late payment fee. If a bill is not received within three weeks, or if an adjustment should be made to the bill, the student should contact the Student Finance Office so that payment can be made by the 30 day deadline. Subsequent failure to pay in full will result in the assessment of additional penalty fees at the university's discretion. Students who have not satisfied all financial obligations have not officially completed registration and are subject to dismissal. Students whose checks are returned NSF also are subject to dismissal.

Loyola will withhold statements of honorable dismissal, grade reports, transcripts, the diploma, and all other reports or materials until all indebtedness to the university has been discharged or until satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Vice President for Business and Finance. No one will be allowed to enroll for subsequent semesters as long as prior financial indebtedness has not been satisfied.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Although Loyola has no monthly payment plan of its own, students may subscribe to one of two plans offered by outside companies.

The first plan is a deferred payment, revolving credit plan whereby the parent or student contracts with Tuition Plans, Inc. to finance all or a part of the annual expenses and repay the amount borrowed on a 12 month basis.

The second plan is a prepaid plan which enables the parent or student to budget payment of required charges before the school year begins. Payments begin five months prior to fall registration and continue for ten months. This plan is offered by Educational Funds, Inc.

Descriptive literature concerning these plans will be sent upon request to the Student Finance Office.

REFUND POLICY

TUITION — Students who withdraw from the university or from a course are entitled to a refund of a percentage of their tuition. Students who withdraw must return a completed withdrawal form to the Office of the Registrar. Mere cessation of attendance does not constitute withdrawal. The date of receipt of the withdrawal notice by the Registrar will determine the amount of tuition refund. Refunds are a percentage of the tuition payable in the semester in which the student withdraws, not a percentage of the total amount billed. Only tuition is refundable. No refunds are made when a student is suspended or dismissed for academic, disciplinary, or financial reasons. Tuition refunds are made on the following basis:

1. If formal notice is received within one week after the beginning of the semester a credit of 100 percent of tuition is made.
2. If formal notice is received within three weeks after the beginning of the semester a credit of 75 percent of tuition is made.
3. If formal notice is received within five weeks after the beginning of the semester a credit of 50 percent of tuition is made.
4. If formal notice is received within seven weeks after the beginning of the semester a credit of 25 percent of tuition is made.
5. No credit is allowed after the seventh week of classes.

Students forced to withdraw for medical reasons will be given a full tuition refund. A doctor's certificate must be presented to the Student Finance Office.

ROOM — Students who withdraw from the university for any reason are not entitled to any refund on the cost of their room.

MEALS — Students may receive a refund on the meal plan, prorated to the date of withdrawal. These refunds must be approved by the university food service.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Types of Assistance

Academic Scholarships: Scholarships are awarded to outstanding students with superior academic records and national test scores. Students already attending Loyola School of Law cannot receive scholarship assistance through the University Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid except to renew a prior year award. Upperclassmen law students, however, are eligible for privately endowed, Law Review, Moot Court and legal research grants through the School of Law. Loyola may consider that gift aid from other sources satisfies all or part of a student's scholarship eligibility.

In addition to the scholarships administered by the Scholarships and Financial Aid Office, the School of Law administers the following seven scholarships:

Jack LaNasa Scholarships. This scholarship has been established in memory of Jack LaNasa, husband of Josie Greco LaNasa and brother of Providence Sara LaNasa. It is financed by an annual grant from the LaNasa-

Greco Foundation and is awarded to a deserving student in the School of Law in need of financial assistance.

Judge Anna Judge Veterans Levy Scholarship. This scholarship has been established by the Honorable and Mrs. S. Sanford Levy in memory of the late Judge Anna Judge Veterans Levy through a grant from the Judge Anna Judge Veterans Levy Foundation. The scholarship is to be awarded to an unmarried student on the basis of need.

Book Scholarship given by the Alexandria Bar Auxiliary. Awarded to a student from that area or one chosen by the dean.

Clem H. Sehrt Scholarship. This scholarship is in honor of one of Loyola Law School's most distinguished graduates. It is made possible through the generous contributions of his family and friends. The scholarship is awarded to an entering student on the basis of need, academic performance, and participation in undergraduate school activities.

Alfred J. Bonomo, Sr. Family Scholarships. A generous bequest by Mrs. Beatrice Jung Bonomo, the widow of Alfred J. Bonomo, Sr. has established a number of scholarships in the School of Law. These scholarships will be given to students who are qualified to serve as research assistants to the faculty of the School of Law. Alfred J. Bonomo, Sr. was a member of the faculty of the School of Law from 1913 to 1940 and between 1926 and 1932 served as assistant dean.

Ruth and Frank Normann Scholarship. This scholarship has been established in loving memory of Ruth Hernandez Normann and Frank S. Normann, Sr. by their children, and is to be awarded to a student in the evening division on the basis of need and scholarship.

Liskow and Lewis Scholarship. The firm of Liskow and Lewis will award annually three scholarships in the sum of $1,666 each to three students in the top of the class at the end of the junior year (who will be in the senior year when the scholarship is awarded). The award is for tuition and will go to the first three students who are not on a full scholarship—one of whom must be a Civil Law student. Need will be further consideration in the selection of the recipient.

Other Gift Aid: Grants are generally not available to students who have earned a baccalaureate degree.

Campus Jobs: Both the federal government and Loyola provide employment opportunities for students who can demonstrate financial need and who want to work on campus.

Loans: Long-term, low-interest loans provide students with an opportunity to borrow a part of the costs of education. The loans must begin to be repaid when the student is no longer enrolled at an approved school. Borrowers must be able to demonstrate financial need for federally sponsored loans. Loyola sponsors its own loan program for students who are not eligible for the need based loans.

MAKING APPLICATION

A financial aid request is part of the admission application packet. The application for admission should be submitted first. The financial aid request form should then be mailed directly to the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid. A financial statement and need analysis report must also be submitted. The student may elect to furnish this information through the Graduate and Professional School Financial Aid Service (GAPSFAS) of Educational Testing Service, the Financial Aid Form (FAF) of College Entrance Examination Board, the Family Financial Statement (FFS) of American College Testing Program, or the Pell Grant processor. GAPSFAS forms, FAF's, FFS's & Pell Grant applications are readily available from college and university financial aid offices in your own area. The scholarship and financial aid file is not considered to be complete and cannot be evaluated until the request form, financial statement and need analysis report have been submitted.

If not already enrolled at Loyola, New Orleans, a student must also supply the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid with a Financial Aid Transcript from each college or university attended. The student should contact the Financial Aid Office at each college or university giving dates of attendance and student I.D. or Social Security number and request that a Financial Aid Transcript be sent to the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid at Loyola University, New Orleans, LA 70118. Even if financial assistance was never received, the student must provide the Financial Aid Transcript in order to comply with federal aid regulations.

Offers of a financial assistance are not made if admission status is pending or uncertain. Formal admission as a degree seeking student is required in order to receive an offer of financial assistance. The student may expect a response on the completed financial aid application within two weeks of acceptance to the School of Law.

Students are urged to apply early and to supply all documentation well in advance of the beginning of the enrollment period. Offers which can be made before June 1 are considered timely and should meet full need.

MINORITY FUNDING

In accord with its commitment to extend excellence in education to all qualified students regardless of race, color, creed, national origin or sex, Loyola has established a need-based fund for members of minority groups under-represented in the legal profession. At present, such funds are limited to members of racial minority groups. Applicants who are members of racial minority groups and in need of considerable financial aid should contact the School of Law for further information concerning this program.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Life at Loyola is based on the philosophy that education occurs in the context of total human development. Development of the whole person involves not only the intellectual development of the student but also the moral, social, cultural, and physical development of the individual. Programs and services exist which provide opportunities for this total educational experience.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

For those students who need advice and counseling about their law program, the members of the faculty are available on a designated basis. The dean and associate dean will assist the student with scheduling courses and are available to discuss other problems that may arise in the academic year.

COUNSELING

The Counseling, Career Development and Placement Center administers a program of personal, educational, and career counseling and testing services to all registered students. It is intended to serve students who want and need professional assistance with career plans, academic goals, or with personal emotional concerns affecting their adjustment, motivation, and feelings. This service is offered on an individual and confidential basis.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Loyola University is a Catholic Jesuit university. Toward this end, Campus Ministry strives for the complete integration of Catholic and Jesuit spirituality within the entire university community. Members of this staff strive for total availability and a person-centered rather than a project-centered ministry. They are available at all times to guide, counsel, and advise.

STUDENT HOUSING

Loyola operates two residence halls on campus, Biever Hall for men and graduate women and Buddig Hall for undergraduate women. Both residences were designed for and primarily house undergraduate students. There are no accommodations on campus for married students.

Biever Hall is a six story residence with a capacity of housing 410 men. One wing is reserved for male law and graduate students; a separate wing is reserved for female law and graduate students. Biever is centrally heated and air conditioned. All rooms are for double occupancy and are furnished with two closets, two single beds, two chests of drawers, two desks, and a telephone. When space permits, double rooms may be occupied as singles for an extra semester charge. Mail boxes, laundry facilities, study lounges, community kitchen, recreation and television rooms are located within the residence hall.

Buddig Hall is a twelve story residence with a capacity of accommodating 429 women. Each suite houses four students in double rooms with a shared bath and individual heating and air-conditioning controls. Each room is furnished with basin vanities, two single beds, two desks, two closets, two chests of drawers, a bulletin board, and a telephone. A limited number of private rooms with baths are available. These single rooms are assigned to upperclassmen who have previously resided in the hall. Study rooms, laundry facilities, recreation rooms, mail boxes, television room, and a community kitchen are located within the residence hall.

Residents of both residence halls are subject to the housing policies which are promulgated in the Student Handbook. Trained personnel are in both halls to aid students in achieving personal and educational goals. Full-time professionals are responsible for the total operation of the halls. Resident assistants, located on each floor, help provide a well-balanced social and educational atmosphere. Both halls have live-in resident counselors who are Jesuit priests, Catholic sisters or lay individuals who have training and experience in the areas of human need and development.

Requests for accommodations should be forwarded directly to the Housing Office following receipt of acceptance. Reservations are confirmed only after receipt of a signed contract, proof of accident and/or health insurance, and a $50 housing deposit, which is not refundable in the event the student cancels. Housing contracts are for both the fall and spring semesters.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Loyola's health service is for both resident and nonresident, full-time and part-time students who have provided the health service with a completed medical history form. A Registered Nurse is responsible for the administration and supervision of the Health Service, and a local M.D. specializing in internal medicine is the Medical Director of the Health Service. Four days a week, a physician is available during designated hours to see students. Emergency evening, weekend, and holiday care is under the supervision of a licensed practical nurse who resides on campus. Treatment by health center personnel is provided at no charge to the student. Medicines, referrals to off-campus medical specialists, laboratory tests, and hospitalization are at the student's expense. All services provided and communications with medical personnel are confidential as dictated by the medical code of ethics.

For good cause, the university may require a physical or psychiatric examination while a student is in attendance. Results of these examinations may be used to determine a student's suitability to continue in attendance at the university.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The university sponsored health insurance program covering sickness and accident is strongly recommended for all students, especially those students who are from out-of-town. All resident students are required to present proof of health insurance coverage before they will be assigned a space in campus housing. The group plan covers a student for 12 months for a yearly premium. Plans for married students and their families are also available. Information and premium rates are sent to all students each summer by the insurance company. Those failing to receive health insurance information by mail may get details on it from the Student Health Service.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS

Picture identification cards are made during the registration period. At other times, they may be obtained in the Campus Security office. The cards are used for admittance to Recreation Center campus events, sometimes free or at reduced rates, and for other activities. They are required for use of campus library facilities.

Students must obtain these Loyola identification cards and have them on their persons at all times to present to university officials on demand. Loan of the card to anyone is prohibited. Use of another's card subjects the user, and the loaner, to a fine and/or disciplinary action. Lost or stolen cards must be replaced. They should be reported immediately to the Campus Security office. There is a $3 charge for replacement cards. I.D. cards are to be used for the full term of enrollment at Loyola. Cards need to be validated at the beginning of each semester.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The activities program and the student organizations, which form an integral part of this program, constitutes one of the best opportunities for students to achieve educational relevance in leisure time activities. Through participation in campus activities students have the opportunity to integrate the experiences of the classroom with everyday experiences of living and working in a society of people of varied interests, ideas, and values. The student activities program is therefore considered an extension of the classroom and hence an important part of the total educational program of the university.

There are approximately 70 student organizations recognized and active on the Loyola campus. They are classified in the following categories: club sports, social fraternities, honorary fraternities and organizations, professional and academic societies, religious organizations, service organizations, social sororities, special interest organizations, and student communications media. A complete listing of all recognized organizations is contained in the Student Handbook.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association consists of elected members representing the four colleges and the School of Law. The SGA acts as the voice of the student body to the university. Through this body, students act as members on most of the university committees in an effort to insure input in areas of student concern. The SGA sponsors programs and services as well as funding student organizations of the university. Meetings of the SGA are held once a week and are open to all students and members of the university community.

CENTER FOR COMMUTER SERVICES

Loyola's Center for Commuter Services responds to the diverse needs of the off campus student population. Close communication is maintained by informing commuters of services and programs provided on campus and encouraging involvement in special educational and leisure opportunities.

The center coordinates carpooling and off campus housing information. Free literature regarding landlord/tenant responsibilities, car maintenance, consumer rights and other topics is also available.

The staff serves as an advocate for a response to diverse commuter needs. Peer advisors assist in answering questions and making referrals.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AFFAIRS

The Office of International Student Affairs is the center for information and assistance for all international students on campus. International students include students with F-1 or J-1 visas, students who are not citizens of the United States, students whose first language is not English, and students who do not reside within the continental United States.

All immigration matters are administered through this office. The director facilitates the adjustment of international students to university life and helps them with cultural, language, academic, and personal matters. The director maintains liaison with the university administration relative to the special needs and interests of international students. Through a wide variety of programming, interaction is initiated not only among the international students themselves, but also among the internationals and the university community at large, so that an exchange of cultural values may take place.

The director serves as advisor to the International Student Association, a social and cultural organization. In addition, a file is maintained of study abroad materials for all Loyola students interested in studying in another country.

UNIVERSITY CENTER AND LOYOLA UNION

As a primary part of the educational process, the Danna Center and the Loyola Union play an important role, acting as a foundation for the development of positive and progressive student participation.

The center serves the various campus needs of students, functioning as a unifying force where students as well as other members of the university community, may come together and interact with a sense of unity.

It is a place where students may discover and develop fellowship and common bonds of interest with other individuals and groups. Through both formal and informal activities, and through the process of working together to achieve common ends, students, faculty, and administrators may develop better communications, respect, and an appreciation for each other as individuals.

It is with these principles in mind that the Center Programming Board commonly referred to as the Loyola Union has established the following objectives in cooperation with the Association of College Unions-International; to be a campus center where all members of the university community can meet formally and informally, to provide services and facilities to the university community, to complement the educational goals of the university, providing cultural, social and recreational programs, and to maintain the center as an open forum where all sides of issues can be aired.

RECREATION CENTER

The Recreation Center offers a comprehensive sports program, which provides students with opportunities for selfdirected recreation, competitive sports, and leisure time activities in some form of physical exercise. The program of activities is designed to provide every student, regardless of ability, the occasion to participate in the program. The university also cooperates in the sponsorship of several club sports which compete with other universities and athletic organizations.

The Loyola Recreation Center consists of four multi-purpose courts used for tennis; basketball, volleyball and other activities; four handball/racquetball courts; a gymnastic area; weight room; and locker room facilities.

PLACEMENT PROGRAM

The School of Law provides a placement program to counsel and assist law students regarding professional opportunities. Main emphasis is placed on assisting law graduates in obtaining permanent positions after graduation, but summer internship programs and senior year clerkships are included.

CAMPUS SECURITY

Campus security provides routine security services to the campus on a 24 hour a day basis, throughout the year. In addition to these services, campus security provides for the registration of vehicles, the free registration of bicycles, the free use of engravers for marking of property, and the central location for all lost and found on the campus.

COURSES

In the spring semester of 1979, all courses were renumbered to make them part of the new comprehensive computer based student record system. The old number appears at the end of each course description. The following chart details the four digit prefixes that are used for law courses and what these prefix numbers mean.

Prefix	Subject Area	Abbreviation
0601	Law General	LAW
0602	Civil Law	LCIV

ELECTIVE COURSES

Law General (Prefix 0601)

Law 803 Western Legal Tradition 3 hrs.
This course treats significant aspects and institutions of the Roman law, canon law, common law and civil law. It also considers the interaction of these traditions in the context of our American legal heritage. Some emphasis is placed upon codification movements in Europe and the United States and particularly in Louisiana.

Law 804 Legal Accounting 2 hrs.
Introduction to financial statements and bookkeeping, followed by critical examination of selected problems illustrating generally accepted accounting principles. Consideration will be given to the principles governing recognition of revenue, the matching of costs against appropriate revenues (with particular stress on inventory and depreciation accounting), the cost of borrowed capital and of long-term productive assets, and proprietary transactions. Emphasis throughout will be laid on the legal contexts in which the lawyer is likely to confront accounting problems. The materials will draw heavily on current corporation reports and the publications of the American Institute of Accountants and the SEC, with supporting and contrasting illustrations from judicial decisions and administrative practice. Formerly 201.

Law 806 Corporate Finance 3 hrs.
Prerequisite: Corporations.
Economic and legal problems arising in connection with financing decisions of publicly held corporations, including valuation of the enterprise and its securities, determination of securities structure and dividend policy, and decisions on investment opportunities, whether by internal expansion or by merger or takeover. Consideration will be given to the application of federal securities regulation, as well as state law, to the corporate decisions and to the import of the legal requirements for investors. Formerly 360.

Law 808 Securities Regulation 3 hrs.

This course covers federal regulation of selling, trading, and dealing in securities in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; public offerings, secondary distributions, insider trading, applications of Rule 10 (b) 5, sale of corporate control, market manipulation, broker-dealer regulation; state "blue sky" laws; and attendant civil liabilities under federal and state laws. Formerly 390.

Law 810 Negotiable Instruments 3 hrs.

This course involves a discussion of the formal requisites of the negotiability of bills, notes and checks, methods of transfer, indorsements, bona fide purchase, equities and defenses, and liabilities of the parties. Formerly 301.

Law 812 Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy 3 hrs.

A study of the problem of the debtor who does not pay his debts. This includes processes available to the creditor for collection, competition among multiple creditors for the assets of the debtor, means of affecting a distribution of the debtor's assets among his creditors, means of rehabilitating the debtor, and the debtor's right to some measure of protection. More than half the course is devoted to a study of the Bankruptcy Act since all aspects of the creditor/debtor problem are colored by the interaction of state created rights and the federal bankruptcy provisions. Formerly 331.

Law 818 Labor Law 3 hrs.

This course deals with the legal problems of concerted action by employees, including the common law obstacles to the objects of labor combinations, picketing and the boycott, the construction and administration of the National Labor Relations Act, the collective bargaining agreement, and the union-member relationship. - Law 848 Antitrust Law 3 hrs.
A study of the role that federal legislation (the Sherman Act, the Clayton Act, and the Federal Trade Commission Act) plays in preserving a competitive economic system. Price fixing devices, boycotts, tying restrictions, misuse of patents, and corporate mergers are analyzed in order to discern what types of conduct are condemned by the antitrust laws. The subject matter of the course serves as an example in affording the student the opportunity to observe the development of law in pursuit of policy goals and to formulate his own ideas concerning the function of law in a complex social and economic system. Formerly 389.
- Law 850 Patent and Copyright Law 3 hrs.
This course emphasizes patent law: conditions for a valid patent, the subject matter patentable, procedures in the Patent Office, infringement actions, patent litigation, and the antitrust implications of patent problems. Also considered more briefly is the law of copyright and trademarks especially as these subjects overlap or touch upon patent law. Formerly 391.
- Law 852 Legislation 3 hrs.
A study of the organization and operating of legislative bodies, the legislative process, the interrelationship between legislation and the common (or judge made) law, statutory drafting, and the judicial interpretation of statutes. Formerly 379.
- Law 854 Insurance 3 hrs.
In this course consideration is given to personal and property insurance, together with the rights and powers of the insurer, the insured, the beneficiary, the assignees, and creditors. Formerly 380.
- Law 856 State and Local Government Law 3 hrs.
A study of the legal aspects of intergovernmental relationships including the distribution of power among the federal, state, and local governments. Organization and reorganization of local governmental entities, home rule, metropolitan government, and financing of the local government are among the subjects covered. The legal issues are related to the greatest extent possible to contemporary American urban developments. Formerly 387.

- Law 858 Environmental Law 3 hrs.
A survey covering legal controls concerned with protection of the environment. The concept of environmental quality and the role of the lawyer in representing those concerned with or affected by programs and policies aimed at its protection will be the basic subject matter. Special emphasis will be given to federal and state administrative programs for control of air and water pollution. Basic questions of public policy — e.g., how to reconcile environmental protection with economic growth and increasing demands for sources of energy, how and by whom should such decisions be made, and how can the use of expertise and systematic analysis in decision-making be reconciled with the goals of pluralism and participation — will be examined through a series of case studies. Formerly 300.
- Law 860 Administration of Criminal Justice II 2 hrs.
A study of the common problems of criminal prosecution from the instigation of charges through the trial process to the handling of post conviction remedies. The Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure would be employed. The course is open to both civil and common law students. Formerly 263.

Formerly 275.
- Law 865 Juvenile Law 2 hrs.
Intended to be a practical course to give students experience with live problems, this seminar requires a paper relating to the observation of merits, faults, and recommendations for improvement in the juvenile justice system or parts of it. These conclusions must result from individual and group visits to court and to facilities to which the child in trouble is exposed, and from speakers and interviews, all as compared with ideals and trends learned from casebook reading, classroom discussion, and library research. Formerly 404.

- Law 866 Maritime Personal Injury 3 hrs.
This course undertakes an in-depth study of the law governing personal injury and wrongful death claims under the General Maritime Law, Federal Statutory Law, and State Statutory Law. Both the jurisdictional and substantive law elements are considered. Detailed treatment is afforded to the law relative to seamen (including "status seamen" under the General Maritime Law and the Jones Act) and to longshoremen and other harbor workers (under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers Compensation Act). The applicability of the Louisiana Direct Action Statute in the light of the federal Limitation of Liability Act is also considered. Formerly 385.
- Law 867 Business Planning 2 hrs.
Prerequisites for this seminar are Legal Accounting, Corporations and Taxation I. This seminar combines advanced work in corporations, corporate financing and federal taxation in the context of business planning and counseling. The seminar will be based upon a series of problems involving common business transactions, which present corporate and tax issues for analysis and resolution. The problems will cover such topics as the formation and financing of corporations, both closely held and publicly owned, stock redemption, the sale and purchase of businesses, mergers and other forms of acquisition and recapitalization, division and dissolution of corporations. Students will be expected to form groups, and written solutions to problems may be required from time to time from each group. Formerly 405.
- Law 868 Workmen's Compensation 2 hrs.
This course consists of a study of the Louisiana law relative to tort liability of master and servant and the Louisiana workmen's compensation law. Formerly 279.
- Law 869 First Amendment Rights 2 hrs.
Emphasis will be on first amendment rights of speech, press, assembly, and religions. Material will deal with topics of contemporary interest to acquaint the student with relevant social problems identified with first amendment rights. Formerly 410.

This course will be devoted to the federal income taxation of corporations and shareholders with primary emphasis on the tax aspect of incorporating, liquidating, and operating business and corporate forms. Formerly 351.
- Law 873 Taxation of Partnerships 2 hrs.
This course involves a study of the tax treatment of the formation, operation and termination of general and limited partnerships, and tax sheltered investments. Class discussion will focus on definition of the partnership and the possible treatment of a partnership as an association. Prerequisite: Income taxation — Law 780.

Law 874 Federal Tax Procedure 2 hrs.

Prerequisite: Tax I. This course deals with numerous aspects of federal tax procedure. Specifically, the course will cover administrative procedures before the Internal Revenue Service, an analysis of the statutory notice procedures, the entire spectrum of litigating a case before the United States Tax Court and District Court, extended periods of limitations, additions to tax and other problems that a practitioner might encounter while handling a tax case. Prerequisite: Income Taxation - Law 780. Formerly 352.

Law 875 The Supreme Court as Institution 2 hrs.

A study in depth of the Supreme Court of the United States as an institution, special attention being placed on the current constitutional debate as to the nature of the court, whether primarily judicial or political, and whether the court has been, and is pursuing its proper role in relation to the other branches of government, once this "proper" role has been ascertained. In order to determine this latter question we will study and discuss in depth a few of the more outstanding decisions of the court in light of the views of various commentators both pro and con. One of the major questions we shall address will be the distinction between a desirable result reached in a particular case and the proper role of the court as institution — judicial or political. Formerly 416.

Law 876 Conflict of Laws 3 hrs.

This course deals with the law relating to transactions with elements in more than one state. Emphasis is placed upon the problems of choice of laws to be applied in a given situation where the laws of the states involved differ. This problem is examined with respect to actions in tort, workmen's compensation, contract, family law, and decedents' estates. Consideration is given to constitutional issues, the theoretical bases for the choice of laws, and questions relating to the jurisdiction of courts and the enforcement of foreign judgments. Formerly 319.

Law 877 Current Problems in Constitutional Law 2 hrs.

This is a seminar devoted to in depth treatment of one or more topics of current controversy concerning constitutional law. The exact subjects to be considered will be chosen by the instructor. Seminar members will submit term papers in completion of course requirements. Formerly 418.

Law 878 International Law 3 hrs.

This introductory course acquaints students with the theory and practice of a distinct legal system. The sources and mode of discourse of the international legal system are studied in sufficient detail to allow the student to undertake further work in the discipline. Detailed examination will be undertaken of several substantive areas of international law. These areas will be selected from such topics as the following: jurisdiction of states, international criminal law, law of the sea, international protection of human rights, laws of war and regulation of resort to force by states. Formerly 375.

Law 879 International Commercial Law 3 hrs.

In the first phase of this course students will discuss the legal framework under which U.S. foreign commerce functions. This framework includes federal and state statutes, court and administrative decisions, treaties, foreign laws, and the rules of multinational organizations. In the second phase of the course each student will present a report advising a client in respect of his interests in this field.

Law 880 The Constitution and Foreign Affairs 3 hrs.

A study of the nature and extent of constitutional restraints on the conduct of foreign relations by the United States. Particular attention will be given to the role of the President, the Congress, the federal judiciary and the states in foreign affairs. The protection of individual rights by means of constitutional and international guarantees will also be explored. Students will present an oral report on a selected aspect of American foreign affairs. There will be a final examination. Formerly 323.

Law 881 Comparative Law 3 hrs.

This course will analyze several aspects of the contemporary world's major legal systems. Topics to be examined include sources of law, the role of the courts and the status and function of the legal profession. One or more areas of substantive or procedural law will be examined as an example of application of the law in several of these legal systems.

Law 882 Jurisprudence 3 hrs.

This course deals with the history of the natural law. It appraises such schools of jurisprudence as the analytical, historical, philosophical, sociological, and realist in the light of that law. The natural law basis of the principal juridical institutions in the Roman and Anglo-American legal systems is considered, as well as the creative role of the natural law in contemporary law-making. Formerly 313.

Law 883 Dialogues in Law and Ethics 2 hrs.

This course will attempt to sharpen the students critical awareness of the sensitive moral and ethical problems inherent in the legal enterprise. The goal is to sensitize the prospective counselor, advocate, legislator and judge to these problems while helping him develop the ability to resolve them in a fashion most respectful of the personal human values affected. The course will draw on a variety of interdisciplinary readings and will involve persons experienced in some facet of the problems discussed.

Law 884 Colloquy in International Law 2 hrs.

Students with a background in the subject will conduct an intensive study of one or more issues in international law. These issues will be identified by the instructor prior to registration. Prerequisites: Law 878 International Law and stipulated requirements. Limited enrollment.

Law 885 Sex Discrimination Law 2 hrs.

This course deals with the law in the areas of sex-based discrimination. Emphasis on discrimination in family law, constitutional law, criminal law, education and employment opportunities. Consideration will be given to the legal status of both sexes and the changing emphasis toward equalization of the status of the sexes. Formerly 417.

Law 886 Advanced Corporate Tax Seminar 2 hrs.

This course emphasizes advanced work in federal taxation of corporations. Examination will be made of a series of problems involving common business transactions and presenting corporate and tax issues for analysis and resolution. Limited to 20 students. Prerequisite: Income Taxation - Law 780 and Federal income Taxation of Corporations - Law 872.

Law 887 Federal Taxation Seminar 2 hrs.
